BEST INTERNATIONAL FUTURE LAWYER AWARD 2018

The Best International Future Lawyer Award is granted by AIJA, the International Association of Young Lawyers, for the best written Essay submitted on the topic “The moon is now colonized, you are in charge of its legislation. How do you handle it? In this context, would civil and common law systems be merged, if not, which one would prevail?”.

This is a prestigious opportunity to show law students' potential to their future colleagues and employers. The Award is open to any law students who are aged 45 and under and are still enrolled at any university worldwide at the time the Paper is submitted.

Participating is very easy and can make you fly very high!

Prize

The Winner will be honoured with:

- Free AIJA membership until 2021.
- Publication of the Winner's name and Essay's title on AIJA's website, social media and various communication channels.
- Invitation to attend free of charge the 2018 International Young Lawyers' Congress taking place in Brussels, Belgium on 28 August - 1 September.

Important dates

- Essays are accepted as from: 1 February 2018
- Deadline to submit your Essay: 1 May 2018
